"A great investment! Thank you so much for your fast, efficient and friendly service. I am a small business that trades part-time throughout the week and was urgently seeking staff. Your helpful approach allowed me to write an advertisement and circulate to your members within hours. Best of all - I secured two quality candidates. Thank you Evangelical Alliance - you truly have been a blessing."

Karen M Bryson, Bright Futures 4 All

Chief Executive

The Lodge Trust CIO

✓ Evangelical Alliance member organisation

The Lodge Trust, located in Rutland, is a registered Charity (No. 1161735) providing Christian homes and working environments for adults with learning disabilities.

Due to the relocation of the current CEO, we are looking for someone with vision and enthusiasm for people with learning disabilities to develop further the work of the Trust. You must have a commitment to working with people with learning disabilities, and be able to provide spiritual leadership based on a strong evangelical Christian commitment.

You will have broad management experience, be able to motivate and manage a varied staff team, and have experience of managing budgets. You will need good communication skills to represent the work of the Trust and be able to work with local authorities and manage large contracts. Experience in the charitable sector would be advantageous.

If this is a challenge that you think you could meet, please visit: www.lodgetrust.org.uk/jobs

Closing date for applications: 23rd Jan. 2019 (12 noon)

1st stage interview: Wed. 30th January 2019; 2nd stage interview: Thursday 31st January 2019
